

At the end of the bill add the text of the following: H.R. 2279, "To expedite the construction of new refining capacity on closed military installations in the United States, and for other purposes".